A THINKER SPEAKS

Coming as it did right at New Year's time, when folks are prone to do a little sound thinking about their personal and collective welfare, the address in Richmond Monday of Dr. Will Durant merits public attention.

Will Durant is one of our best contemporary thinkers and what he has to say rates serious review.

First, he repeats the thesis of Leopold Stauder's book, "The Revolution Against Civilization," when he declares that we are replenishing our race from the bottom instead of from the top.

He then describes the church as being little and unmediated breed much," he avers. To this he attributes loss of leadership, decay of law and order, overthrow of decency and political corruption.

The Facts of Life

Funeral Held For Mrs. Covington

Mrs. Ann Hastine Gilliam Covington, 82 years of age, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W.
H. Gilliam, of Pamplin, on December 16.

She was the daughter of the late German H. Gilliam and Mary Campbell Gilliam. She leaves the following children: Messrs. John, Gorman, Edgar, Judson and Arnold Covington, and two daughters, Mrs.
W. J. Covington, Jr., of Appomattox and Mrs. W. H. Gilliam of Pamplin.

She had 54 grand children, 14 great grandchildren, 5 great, great grandchildren, making 5 generations living until her death.

Funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. M. Black, on December 17 at 3 o'clock. Six of her grandsons served as pallbearers and her granddaughters as officiaries. Interment was made in the family cemetery at her old home near Pamplin.

She had a cheerful disposition and enjoyed talking and giving information about the old War-telling incidents of happenings of her childhood days which she remembered distinctly until her death.

Her death takes from the county not only one of its oldest, but one of its best citizens.

Refreshing Relief

When You Need a Laxative

Because of the refreshing relief it has brought them, thousands of men and women, who could afford much more expensive laxatives, use Black-Draught when needed. It is very economical, purely vegetable, highly effective. . . Mr. J. Lester Roberson, well known hardware dealer at Martinsville, Va., writes:
"I certainly can recommend Black-Draught as a splendid medicine. I have taken it for constipation and the dull feelings that follow, and have found it very satisfactory."
